

Whose interests are you serving by fast tracking this through without public review?